

SOCIETY

(Continued from Second Page.)

taken for the page Casario (with whom the countess has fallen in love) and is challenged by Sir Sir Andrew Aguecheek, who is also a sutor to the countess. The confusion is cleared away when Viola and Sebastian meet face to face.

The role of Viola is essayed by Miss Jeanette Stearns; Olivia, by Miss Marya Hewitt; Sebastian, by Morgan Miller; Duke Orsino, by Walter Galeski. The other characters are: Roberto, a sea captain, Russell H. Kuhn; Valentine, Julian Staples; Antonio, Adrian Henschel; sailors, Sam Padgett and Robert Williams; officers, Julian Staples and Robert Williams; attendants to Olivia, Miss Marie Brauer and Miss Elsie Gillman; attendants to Duke Orsino, Russell H. Kuhn and Frank Kelmbrugh.

The play is under the direction of Herbert Curtis and Miss Ray Van Vort, head of the English department at the High School. The play will be one of the most interesting events of the Easter season, and a brilliant and the two performers.

At the Y. W. C. A. The at-home at the Young Women's Christian Association this afternoon from 5:30 to 7 will consist of a Japanese program and tea. Mrs. Cameron Johnson, who has been in Japanese mission, will talk on incidents of her life in that country. Children in Japanese costumes will sing, and also present a Japanese mission scene. All young women are cordially invited.

In and Out of Town. Judge and Mrs. H. Carter Scott returned to Richmond yesterday, after a trip to Atlantic City and Warrenton.

Mrs. R. S. Jones and Miss Frances Land, of Emporia, are spending the week-end at the Jefferson Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mackenzie Tabb are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Prosser Tabb, in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Boschen have returned to the city, after a visit to friends in Pennsylvania.

Miss Isabelle Carter has been spending some time with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Mayo, at Palm Beach.

Mrs. Maud A. Hefebower, of West Main Street, has returned from Charlottesville, where she has been the guest of friends for several days.

Mrs. J. Wilson McCrillis, who has been visiting Mrs. William M. Myers, returned to her home in Providence, R. I.

Miss Barber is spending some time here as the guest of Miss Evelyn Gordon on East Grace Street.

Miss Katherine Preston Starrett, of Woodbury, Albemarle county, who has been sick for some time at the Good Samaritan Hospital, in Lexington, Ky., is now improving rapidly, and will shortly accompany her mother, Mrs. J. W. Starrett, to her home.

Wilbur Hefebower, of West Main Street, is traveling in Tennessee for a stay of several weeks.

Misses Kate and Elizabeth Myers, of 122 West Grace Street, will spend Easter week with friends at Old Point Comfort.

ORANGE

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Orange, Va., March 23.—Miss Janie Jones attended an entertainment in Gordonsville on last Thursday evening.

Edwin Gibson, of Culpeper was in Orange on Sunday.

H. G. Shackelford is spending some time at his home in Orange. He will return to Richmond next week for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph G. Walker, of Woodberry, recently spent several days at the Jefferson in Richmond, where Mr. Walker attended the good roads meeting held in that city.

Dr. L. S. Ricketts, H. O. Lyne and Henry Gouley, Jr., attended the good roads meeting held in Richmond last week.

Mrs. W. W. Harper has returned to Pelham from a trip to Atlantic City and Washington.

Miss Evelyn Marshall is spending some time in Roanoke, where she is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Reid.

Miss Patty Lyle, of Richmond, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Warren.

S. Crafton was in Gordonsville on last Thursday.

Miss Annie C. Berkley, of Danville, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Zinn at Gaston Hall.

Miss Lucy Sanford has returned from a visit of several weeks to friends in Onancock.

Miss Nancy Shackelford spent Tuesday in Culpeper as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Rosslyn C. Vass.

Miss Elizabeth Fitzgerald and Miss Louise Fitzgerald, of the University of Virginia, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph G. Walker, at Woodberry Forest.

Barton Mason was in Orange a few days this week.

George Marshall spent Monday in Culpeper.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Woodruff, of Frascati, were in Orange Tuesday.

Miss Mollie Rawlings is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Rawlings in Washington, D. C.

The Rev. K. M. Block, of Woodberry Forest, was in Philadelphia for a few days this week.

Miss Sallie Phillips went to Culpeper on Tuesday and will be the guest of friends for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Garrett, of Madison, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Garrett in Orange.

J. P. Perry, of Washington, was a week-end visitor at his home in Orange.

Mrs. R. W. Hunley and small son, of Newport News, have returned to their home after spending two weeks in Orange, as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Garrett.

Miss Ollie Perry left for Washington on Wednesday, where she will be the guest of her brother, J. P. Perry.

BON AIR

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Bon Air, Va., March 23.—Miss Edith Hazen was a guest last week of Mrs. George Talcott, at Southampton.

Miss Louise Hudspeth is spending a month with Mrs. Robert Bullington, at C. Faller, of Carlisle, Pa., was with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Boschen last week.

A very successful entertainment was given on Tuesday night at the library building in the restocking of the shelves. Silhouettes of all the village adorned the walls of the building. Punch, cakes and sandwiches were served.

Mrs. David Ainslie spent the week-end with Mrs. M. W. Withers.

Mrs. William Reed and small son, William, were the recent week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Ladd.

Mr. and Mrs. Polk Miller were guests the past week of Mrs. Withers Miller in Richmond.

Miss Barfield and Miss Lillian Cook have been with Miss Bessie Cook this week.

Miss Annie Kerans has been staying with Mrs. C. Moore.

Kenneth Elppen was with Mr. and Mrs. Percy Glum over Sunday.

Charles Phipps was here on Sunday with Charles Cooke.

Miss Eliza Christian has been staying with Mrs. Robert Christian in Richmond.

Miss Elizabeth Cooke is spending the week-end with Mrs. T. L. P. Cooke.

George Dodd spent last Sunday with Mrs. Mary Dodd here at her home.

Rev. William Pace is visiting his parents here this past week.

HIGHLAND SPRINGS

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Highland Springs, Va., March 23.—The silver jubilee entertainment given at New Bridge Baptist Church Friday night, under the auspices of the Sunbeam Society, was a pronounced success, and a delightful social evening was spent.

Mrs. Washington Bottoms, who is in the St. Elizabeth Hospital, is improving.

The Inner School debate for the banner offered by the superintendent, A. D. Wright, has been won by the Highland Springs School. Credit is due to the representatives, Miss Decker and Mr. Walker. The greatest enthusiasm was shown by children and parents, and many were present at the contest, which was at Barton Heights.

The Kentucky Belle will be presented in the auditorium of the High School, March 22, under the auspices of the Literary Society.

Mrs. Spangler and little daughter, Wilma, who formerly lived here, returned to the village during the week for a visit to friends.

Mr. Beauchamp and family, after having spent the past winter in Florida, have returned to their home in Highland Springs, on Holly Avenue.

The "Popcorn Club" held its regular weekly meeting during the past week with Harry Hardy at his cozy home on Holly Avenue.

The evening was pleasantly spent in cards and story telling, while others enjoyed themselves in popping corn. Among those present were Mrs. Harriette Darden, Mrs. Beth Ridd, Mrs. Annie Weeks, Mrs. W. W. and Miss Norma Littlepage, J. Harry Hardy and Newell Rathbun.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist Church met during the past week with Mrs. Crutcher, and with the president, Mrs. Smith, in the chair. After the regular routine work, arrangements were made for an Easter sale and entertainment.

GORDONSVILLE

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Gordonsville, Va., March 23.—Sam W. McElroy, of Maple Spring, spent this week in Richmond.

Thomas Fair, of New York, is a guest of W. Wilbur Osborne, at Lower Springfield.

Little Frances McElroy, who has been very ill with pneumonia, is at the home of her parents, "Jordan," in convalescent.

Jack Cochran, of Charlottesville, was a guest at Lower Springfield on Monday.

Albert Murphy has sold his home, "Midway," and will move into Gordonsville.

R. G. Cowherd is slowly recovering from the effects of an accident at Lee's crossing some weeks ago, but is still too far from well to leave his room.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Statton are spending some time with Mrs. Stratton's father, W. W. Scott.

Charles E. Russell is a guest of Mrs. B. Brent at "Montebello." Mrs. Russell is spending the winter with her mother, awaiting the completion of a week in Philadelphia, three miles from Charlottesville.

John Camper, from near Orange, was a recent guest of his brother-in-law, G. T. Cowherd, at "Oak Grove."

Miss Jacqueline Ware spent the first

Our displays of spring merchandise will add immeasurably to the prestige this store has attained in its service to the public—in defining style tendencies, in creating distinctive modes, in improving quality standards.

Dreyfus & Co.
Broad Street at Second

"Women's and Misses' Exclusive Apparel"

The Popularity of Dreyfus Styles

In women's high-class wearing apparel cannot be questioned. In addition to more attractive styles, we give better values in the quality of materials, workmanship and finish.

The Easter Outfits Are Ready

AND THE TIME FOR SELECTING THEM IS SHORT—LESS THAN THREE WEEKS

A Wonderful Collection of Gowns, Suits, Coats, Millinery and Accessories

BEAUTIFUL APPAREL SUCH AS THAT SHOWN AT OUR OPENING LAST WEEK IS NOW ON SALE

Sale of Handsome Afternoon Gowns

Specially Priced $25 to $75

These Gowns were purchased specially for our opening display and for this sale, and are unusually good values.

Lingerie Gowns, $12.50 to $50

We have on display in all styles of hand-embroidered models the daintiest creations that have ever been executed in lingerie. They are shaped and fitted the same as the silk gowns. The overdraperies and tunics show exquisite rare old hand-made laces that are only used with the most beautiful hand work.

By selecting now you have an opportunity to choose from a very large collection.

Serge Coat Dresses, $10 to $37.50

Twenty New Spring Styles in These Fashionable Dresses

They are made of soft French serge, in blue and white, and show the most attractive combinations in trimming. These dresses are the most shapely fitting garments that have ever been shown at the prices. $10.00 to $37.50.

Tailor Made Suits, $25

Two Very Special Values

They have just arrived, and are adaptations of French designs. These suits make one of the greatest specials we have ever offered for early spring.

Of the Tailored Suits from $25 to $40, those shown on the models at our opening represent only a small number of our extensive lines at this price range. This showing is so large that it can be seen to much better advantage on closer inspection, so we suggest that you visit this section for that purpose some time during the week. It is interesting to note, in these inexpensive suits, with what consummate skill imported models have been reproduced and adapted—also the number of attractive models of our designing.

SPRING MILLINERY

Attractive Displays, Correct Modes

Expressing the latest ideas of the foremost among the designers of Paris and New York—and Hats galore from our own work-rooms, in original, true types and adaptations especially designed to meet the requirements of every Richmond woman.

A special feature are reproductions of Paris and London Hats at $10.00 to $25.00.

CULPEPER

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Culpeper, Va., March 23.—Mrs. Herndon Vasey Fraser, of Charlottesville, W. Va., who has been spending the week with relatives in Culpeper, left for home to-day.

Mr. and Mrs. Turner Rattrie and little son were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Waite on Monday.

Miss Jacqueline Ware spent the first of the week with her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Slaughter, near Mitchell.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry O'Bannon Cooper, of Alexandria, were week-end guests of Mr. Cooper's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Cooper, on Railroad Street.

Mrs. Randolph Norris was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Starke and other friends in Culpeper for several days, returning to her home near Mitchell, on Wednesday.

Mrs. Nellie Bispham and Miss Mildred Bispham, of Baltimore, who have been spending several months in Richmond, were guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Fray, on East Street.

They returned to Baltimore the first of the week, where they will only be for a few days before leaving for a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Stacey Bispham, in Oklahoma City.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Lewis were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Parr at the latter's home in Brandy.

Master Clifford Miller, Jr., who was the recent guest of his cousin, Lewis Nelson, Jr., on Main Street, has returned to his home in Richmond.

Miss Sue Wigginton was the guest for several days this week of the Misses Waite on East Street, but has since returned to her home, Arlington, this county.

Mrs. Frank Hall, of Mitchell, was the guest during the week of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Robertson on Jameson's Hill. Miss Fannie Somerville and Mr. Atwell Somerville were also guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robertson the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wells Nevins, of New York, who have been visiting Mrs. Nevins's brother, George Norris, at the old Norris home in the county, returned to New York several days ago.

Mrs. E. Jackson Eggborn is spending several weeks with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Howard, at their home near Annsville, this county.

Mrs. Polk Hill returned this week from a visit of several weeks to Mr. and Mrs. Willie Hill, at Lawrenceville.

Miss Nannie Shackelford, of Orange, was the guest during the week of Misses Mary and Florence Vass.

W. A. Bickers, of Washington, has been spending several days with relatives on Jameson's Hill.

Mrs. Warren Coons and her young daughter, Miss Mary Edwina Coons, who have been spending some weeks with Mrs. Coons's father, Captain Thompson, at his home near Lynchburg, returned to Culpeper this week.

Miss Jean Coons has also returned and is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Roger Bickers.

Mrs. Pressley Rixey, of Washington, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. S. Russell-Smith, for the past week, returned to Washington Friday.

Mrs. Branch Parker, who has been spending the winter in Warrenton, arrives this week for a month's stay in Culpeper. While here she will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Brownings on East Street.

General and Mrs. William Townes and their daughter, Miss Ellnor Townes, leave to-morrow for their new home in Alberta, Canada.

Where their son, George Townes, has been located for several years. General Townes is the owner of the well known Afton Green stock farm, and has for years been prominent in racing circles.

Mr. and Mrs. William Major spent Tuesday with friends in Culpeper.

Miss Gibson Green, of Clarksburg,

W. Va., is the guest of her grandmother, Mrs. Blanche Dove, at "Green Lawn."

Miss Laura Lee Parr, of Charlottesville, who has been visiting relatives in Remington and Brandy, will spend next week in Culpeper, the guest of her sister, Mrs. Marion Lewis.

Miss Anne Childress, of Christiansburg, is spending several weeks with Miss Bessie Hooper, on Jameson's Hill.

Roberts Fullam spent Sunday in Orange, the guest of Mr. and Mrs.

Henry Grasty.

J. M. Sample, of West Middlesex, Pa., spent several days in Culpeper this week, and while here purchased the Rankin home, about four miles west of Culpeper. Mr. Sample will move here with his family in the course of the next few weeks.

Miss Elizabeth Mathews is spending the week-end holidays with her parents on East Street, but will return to her studies at Saint Anne's Academy to-morrow.

Easter Millinery

New Arrivals in Fine Tailored

Hats at $5, $6, $8

50 Fine Tailored Hats, values to $7.50; all colors..... $3.98

The New Imitation Panama, trimmed, sailor and dress shapes... $1.45

50 Fine Tailored Hats, values to $4.50; all colors..... $1.98

Complete line of Children's Trimmed Hats, 75c to..... $5.00

All the new Untrimmed Shapes, all colors, in Milan, hems, Tagals and chips—

75c to $5

Large bunch American Beauty Roses, 9 roses and foliage, $1.00 value, 59c.

Large bunch Handsome Lilacs, 59c.

THE FASHION

118 East Broad

Wrong Side, Between First and Second.

Wrong Side, Between First and Second.

$3.50 and $4.50

PATRICIAN
Shoe

The Shoe With a Million Friends

Spring Opening

"Patrician" Shoes—Newest Spring Creations.

Realizing the demand for up-to-date footwear, brimful of Style and Satisfaction, we have become authorized distributors of the world famous "Patrician" Shoes. Their unquestioned popularity is sufficient endorsement to justify our decision in making our store the

HEADQUARTERS FOR "PATRICIAN."

For weeks we have been preparing for this opening. New York, London, Paris, Berlin and Vienna, the great fashion marts of the world, pay tribute to "PATRICIAN" as the acknowledged leader in determining shoe fashions.

"PATRICIAN" dresses the feminine foot with the maximum style at the minimum cost to the wearer. It is the most meritorious shoe ever produced.

SMART COLONIALS, DAINTY OXFORD TIES, STUNNING ANKLE TIES, CHARMING NEW PUMPS.

SEYMOUR SYCLE, 11 W. Broad